SOUND THE ALARM INITIATIVE, HT AWARENESS MONTH

PREPARTIONS FOR THE NEW YEAR

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS MONTH

January is Human Trafficking Awareness Month. Join us in the following “Sound the Alarm” initiatives! More details coming.

Jan 11 – Roxborough Town Hall. An open panel for parents of Roxborough High School students following an incident. All interested in learning the dynamics of domestic minor sex trafficking are welcome!

Panelists include Sakinah Love, Joanna McClinton, Shea Rhodes, and Alexis Krieger.

Jan 14 – Intersections of CoVid-19 and HT, SA, and DV. An open discussion of how the coronavirus pandemic has affected HT, SA, and DV, as well as how the three intersect.

Panelists include Sakinah Love, Michelle Austin, and LaQuisha S. Anthony.

Jan 21 – Human Trafficking in the Digital Age. A short training and open discussion with two FBI agents on how to keep teenagers safe online.

Panelists include Sakinah Love, Alexis Krieger, and Dan Johns.

Jan 28 – Domestic Violence, Human Trafficking, and Law Enforcement. A short training on the intersection of domestic violence and human trafficking and an open discussion with law enforcement on trauma-informed response.

Panelists include Sakinah Love and Michelle Austin.

DONATIONS FOR WOMEN AND TEEN SURVIVORS

Women and teenage girl survivors are in need of basic toiletries, and new socks and undergarments. Our toiletry closets in the high schools are being utilized more than ever. Every little thing helps!

Our South Philadelphia drop-in center is in the process of converting into a safe space for teenagers. Any and all donations—notebooks, art supplies, computers—are welcome!

FURTHER YOUR KNOWLEDGE

1% of sex trafficking victims are identified.

To increase identification, a team of trafficking survivors worked with the Safe House Project and developed a FREE training on how to identify potential victims and survivors. The training is ten modules, each ten minutes, and more than worth going through.
