

REDEEMED FOR A CAUSE OUTREACH

GIVING CAMPAIGN

For the month of August, we initiated our “Giving Campaign”. For the “Giving Campaign”, we sent an email via MailChimp to our donors and supporters as well as potential donors to encourage them to support the organization by giving monetarily. Along with the email, we provided documentation to inform the donors, supporters, and potential donors how their donations will be used for the organization such as toiletries, gas for the organization van, rent for the drop-in center, and support for bi-weekly outreach. We are always accepting monetary donations through CashApp, Venmo, or Paypal.

TOILETRY CLOSETS

For the month of August, our founder, Sakinah Love and team set up toiletry closets in West Catholic Preparatory High School, Richard Allen Charter School, Camelot Academy of Philadelphia, Distinguished Funeral Homes, and Big Picture Vaux High School.

Camelot Academy of Philadelphia, our founder, Sakinah Love and interns will be running a teen girl group coming in September. Richard Allen Charter School, in which they incorporated the toiletry closet with a meditation room for decompressing and stress relieving. Students will be getting the best of both worlds along with a weekly teen girl group ran by our founder, Sakinah Love, in which they can use as a space to discuss their needs. West Catholic Preparatory High School, we set up a toiletry closet in 2020, however, we moved the room within the school into a bigger space to accommodate all grades returning in September. Our purpose in this was to bring some new and exciting toiletries and gifts for our teen girl participants to partake in. Also, Distinguished Funeral Homes received a container full of toiletries such as travel size conditioner, shampoo, deodorant, toothbrush, toothpaste, etc. for the victims of human trafficking in the West Philadelphia area. Lastly, Big Picture Philadelphia Vaux High School, our founder and interns set up the toiletry closet for the teen girls participants to partake in the toiletry closet as well as teen prevention groups starting in September.

Additionally, we will set up a toiletry closet at the Attic Youth Center, Community Umbrella Agency 10: Turning Points for Children and Roxborough High School in September. We are excited about partnering with these community partners to provide services to the youth as well as giving them access to basic hygiene products.

PARTNERSHIPS

Along with the toiletry closets, we received support from our partner organizations who donated toiletry items. We want to thank WOAR (Women Organized Against Rape) who donated a total of 93 donation bags with 744 toiletry items disbursed in the bags including deodorant, lotion, soap, tampons, etc. which were distributed to the emergency community HUBs in the Philadelphia area and toiletry closets in the local schools.

Also, Philadelphia Department of Health provided safe sex kits to us for our ladies in the Philadelphia area. These kits include condoms, sexual/public health brochures and naran. The safe sex kits will be used in our South Philadelphia drop-in center located at 730-732 West Moyamensing Avenue, Philadelphia, PA, 19148, our emergency community HUBs, and collaboration outreach with Salvation Army New Day in Kensington/Frankford to be distributed to the human trafficking victims to use for their personal use.
